Reservation in unaided professional colleges

1250. SHRI A VIJAYARAGHAVAN: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is any attempt to restore the reservation quotas, after the Supreme Court's judgement of the year, 2005, in admission in the unaided professional colleges so as to ensure social control of education;

(b) if so, the number of seats reserved for various communities but abolished through the above judgement, as on date, State-wise, category-wise; and

(c) the action taken for bringing social justice, in professional education, to the marginalized people after the above judgement?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (c) The Central Government in consultation with all concerned is in the process of formulating a policy to address the social justice consideration in respect of admission of students to unaided professional educational institutions. The statistics regarding present level of reservations in different courses in the different States is maintained by the State Governments.

Education in rural areas

†1251.SHRI BHAGWATI SINGH: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government schools are the only source of education for most of the children of families living in rural areas;

(b) if so, whether it is also a fact that condition of these schools is very pathetic in the rural areas and large scale improvements are required in these schools;

(c) if so, whether Government are going to initiate any comprehensive plan for improvement in the level of education for children of the rural areas; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALI ASHRAF FATMI): (a) No, Sir. According to 6th All India Education Survey (30th September, 1993) conducted by NCERT, 81.63% of students in rural areas study in Government or local body schools.

---

†Original notice of the question was received in Hindi.